Afro-Caribbean catering provided by

KING SOLOMON'S
CATERING

About Us...

King Solomon's catering offers creative and innovative culinary delights, whilst embracing traditional and contemporary African, Caribbean, Australasian and Continental cuisines. This pioneering fusion of cultures and cuisines has made us successful with a stellar reputation throughout the UK and beyond over the past 20 years.

Under the charge of Head Chef Solomon Quartey who is internationally sought after and professionally trained with an exceptional artistic flair, we have catered at the finest venues across the UK including One Great George Street, The Berkeley and Luton Hoo Hotel and are accredited to Hilton UK, Marriott UK and De Vere venues. Solomon caters for the Ghanaian Embassy in London and events in the South of France and Sierra Leone to name a few.

A photograph of various Mediterranean-style appetizers. In the foreground, a wooden board is filled with skewers of meatballs and shrimp, along with a large portion of hummus. Behind it, another wooden board holds many small, round falafel balls. In the background, a third board displays several large, golden-brown pita breads. The food is arranged on a dark, reflective surface, possibly a table or counter.
